

Icelandic Poppy Champagne Bubbles

Papaver Nubicaule 'Champagne Bubbles'

- ❁ Translucent, fragrant flowers are held on wiry stems above blue-green foliage in a full range of vibrant colors. Blooms profusely under cool growing conditions
- ❁ May go dormant in hot summers. When foliage declines, around end of July, pull by hand or cut down foliage, new leaves appear in late summer/fall should be left for winter
- ❁ Self seeds freely, shear spent flowers to prevent seed set if desired

Height: 20 Inches

Zone: 2

Champagne Bubbles Icelandic Poppy is in used pots, you can disregard any code written on them

Full Sun

Fragrant

Average Soil

Cold Tolerant