

Habakkuk - "Embrace"

I. Overview

- A. Habakkuk probably live during the time of Nahum, Zephaniah and Jeremiah just after the reign of the last Godly king of Judah, Josiah
- B. Habakkuk 2:4 is quoted three times in the New Testament – the just shall live by faith
- C. Judah had turned against God and was a wicked nation – Habakkuk asked the question – how could God punish Judah by using the Babylonians who seemed to be even less righteous?

II. God's Silence – Habakkuk had a problem with God

Habakkuk 1:1-4 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see. O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save! Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention. Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

- A. He felt like he was crying out to God, but God was not hearing him
- B. He lived in a place that was overrun with wickedness – why wouldn't God do something about this
 - 1. Violence
 - 2. Iniquity
 - 3. Grievance
 - 4. Spoiling
 - 5. Violence
 - 6. Strife
 - 7. Contention
- C. He felt like God wasn't judging sin as He should

III. God's Statement – Habakkuk didn't like this answer

Habakkuk 1:5-11 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs. They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat. They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand. And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it. Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

- A. God promised him that He would do something about all of this wickedness and sin
- B. God would raise up the Chaldeans (Babylonians) to judge Judah for their sin
- C. Description of the Chaldeans
 - 1. Bitter and hasty
 - 2. Terrible and dreadful
 - 3. Swift horses and horsemen
 - 4. Violent
 - 5. They will sweep across the land as wind in the desert

IV. God's Plan – Habakkuk thought it didn't make any sense

Habakkuk 1:12-17 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he? And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad. Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous. Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

- A. Habakkuk reminded God of His Holiness
- B. Habakkuk argued that the Babylonians were far more wicked than Judah and deserved God's judgment even more
- C. How could God use a wicked nation to punish the wickedness of Judah?

- D. The Babylonians considered their enemies as fish that should be caught and devoured
- E. The Babylonians worshipped their own power and might
- F. The Babylonians would take credit for their own victories not acknowledging that Almighty God was using them to accomplish His will

V. God's Sovereignty – Habakkuk needed to learn to trust

A. Waiting on God's answer

Habakkuk 2:1-3 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reprov'd. And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

1. God graciously gave an answer to Habakkuk's question
2. One of the lessons to learn was God's timing is not the same as our expectations – He would deal with the Babylonians

B. Learning to trust by faith

Habakkuk 2:4-5 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

1. God gives a warning about being lifted up with pride
2. The righteous will live by their faith and trust in God – trust me, the day of judgment for the Babylonians will come

VI. God's Judgment Against the Babylonians

Habakkuk 2:6-20 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay! Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them? Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein. Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil! Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it. Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity! Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity? For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory. For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein. What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

- A. Woe to the dishonest and greedy
- B. Woe to the covetous
- C. Woe to those who mistreat and murder people
- D. Woe to those who give their neighbor drink – shame, violence and sensuality follow drunkenness
- E. Woe to those who worship idols

VII. Habakkuk's Prayer

- A. A prayer psalm set to music

Habakkuk 3:1-2 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth. O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

1. His prayer was out of respect and fear for a holy God
2. His prayer encouraged God to continue
3. His prayer reminds us that even in judgment God shows mercy

B. God's greatness

1. A glorious God

Habakkuk 3:3-5 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power. Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

2. A powerful God

Habakkuk 3:6-7 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

3. A victorious God

Habakkuk 3:8-15 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation? Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers. The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear. Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger. Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah. Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

- a) Victory at the Red Sea over the Egyptians
- b) Victory of Deborah and Barak over Sisera
- c) Victory of Joshua lengthening the daylight

C. His response

Habakkuk 3:16-19 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops. Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

- 1. He trembled at knowing that God's judgment was forthcoming
- 2. He would rejoice in the Lord although there would be devastation around him
- 3. He would remember his strength came from the Lord
