CHILDREN'S MINISTRY NEWS

Parents, The Heritage nursery is moving to better serve and secure our families and children. Originally scheduled for December, the nursery move/remodel has been moved to February to avoid construction during Christmas and Life Action. Look for future announcements with details about the schedule and ways you can help us move! Email Amanda if you have any questions, amanda@hbcjc.org.

Heritage is supporting the Will Graham Celebration April 27-29, 2018 at Freedom Hall Civic Center. We will be talking about this more and more as the Celebration approaches. Keep a lookout for more information about how we as a congregation will be involved!

SERMON NOTES

Hope for Your Dry Bones Ezekiel 37:1-10

This chapter has two parts:

1 – Communal Lament v 11 Gen 2:23

2 – Prophetic Deliverance 12b-14a

First: The Valley of Dry Bones 1-2

2 Kings 17:7-20; 2 Kings 25:10-12; Lev 26:34-35; Jer. 25:8-12;

Isaiah 45:9-13

God sinlessly uses sinners and sin to his glory and our good

Second: The Promise of God 3-6

Third: The Power of God 7-10

Conclusion: Jer. 32:17; 2 Cor. 1:20

God gave Ezekiel a vision in which he saw a valley of dry bones. It was a picture that fitted the mood of God's people who were saying "Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone, we are cut off." Ezekiel spoke God's Word to the bones, and as He did, the bones came together. Then they were covered with tendons, flesh and skin. Then God breathed life into the corpses, just as He had breathed life into Adam. God brought life from a cemetery of dry bones.
