

Technology Evaluation Centers Helps Manufacturing and Distribution Companies Take Charge of the ERP Selection Process at the Vendor Shootout™ for ERP

The nation's premier event for enterprise software evaluation, comparison and selection is headed to Houston, November 6-8, 2013.

HOUSTON, TEXAS– October 24, 2013 – Established in 2007, the Vendor Shootout™ for ERP is the nation's first and longest running event focused on simplifying enterprise resource planning (ERP) software evaluation, and selection. Geared toward ERP selection teams and decision makers for companies with manufacturing and distribution requirements, this premier event is ideal for businesses that are budgeting for or are currently evaluating an ERP software upgrade or replacement.

Scheduled for November 6-8, 2013 in Houston, Texas, the goal and focus of the event is to provide a neutral platform for the comparison of top Tier I and Tier II ERP solutions. Live scripted product demonstrations from top ERP vendors coupled with insightful general session presentations, allow selection teams to accomplish what would normally take months of planning, logistics and organizing, in one event.

Event Moderator, Technology Evaluation Centers (TEC), specializes in impartial and quantifiable enterprise software selection. TEC offers a proven and industry leading software selection methodology and state-of-the-art Web-based decision support technology designed specifically for software selection. Through TEC's expert perspective, selection teams can get equipped with the knowledge essential to manage their own selection project, or receive personalized guidance to get them through vital project milestones.

The Vendor Shootout™ for ERP has served as the foundation that has helped hundreds of manufacturing and distribution organizations to jump start their enterprise software selection projects. By attending this unique event, ERP selection teams will be able bring objectivity and transparency to the selection process, while reducing overall cost, risk and duration of the selection project.
