

THE FOLLOWING APPLIES TO CRAFTS VENDORS

SEPT 14, 2019

The Friends of the Gordon-Lee Mansion will host the 2019 Blue & Gray Barbecue on Sept 14, 2019. The events will include a BBQ contest and a craft festival on the Gordon-Lee Mansion grounds during the annual War Between the States Day.

We will offer 15 ft by 20 ft craft spaces on grass areas alongside the entry walk path leading from Cove Road to the Mansion steps. Festival hours are Sat Sept 14th, 9am to 5pm. Please adhere to the following:

- Vendor spaces are 15ft wide by 20 ft deep and are $50 each. (Information only spaces are $25)
- Signed Vendor Registration form with payment is required.
- Space assignments will start at the walk entrance on Cove Road (Hwy 341) in the order received after payment has cleared.
- Food vendors (hot dogs, hamburgers, kettle corn, funnel cakes, etc) use the barbeque vendor application and fee.
- Complete setup by 9 am on Sat, Sept 14. Early setup on Sep 13 between 5pm and 9 pm allowed but no overnight security will be provided. Unload at the main road or Mansion driveway. No vehicles, golf carts. or motorcycles allowed on the grass areas.
- No tables, chairs, or electricity provided. No ground fires allowed. No pets allowed.
- No offensive/adult materials or alcoholic beverages allowed (this is a family oriented festival).
- Liability insurance will not be provided and is each vendor's responsibility.
- No Refunds due to cancellations after Sept 1, 2019. No refunds for no-shows or inclement weather. Tear down after 5pm on Sat.
- Payment may be in cash, check, or Money Order (payable to Friends of GL Mansion).
