AGREEMENT

I understand that I am responsible for every transaction made during the Fog City Comic Con, may it be cash or debit or credit. The Library will not endorse the sales and will not provide change or bills for the vendors or the artists. I understand that the library cannot provide any more security or surveillance except for the presence of the commissionaire and regular staff. I am responsible for the items I sell and for the money I make and will take all the necessary precautions to keep it all secure.

I understand that the Fog City Comic Con is a family event, so I will not bring any mature or inappropriate items/art pieces for sale. The Fog City Comic Con is a good opportunity to be seen, but it is not the right place for the display of nudity, violence, sadomasochism, or any other material which would or could reasonably be considered obscene in a public context.

If applicable to me or to my concern, I understand that I must provide the Fog City Comic Con's vendor organizers with a brief description of the electrical equipment that I will be bringing for use on or near my vendor table space as well as my corresponding power needs no later than Fri. March 9, 2018. I recognize & accept that the Fog City Comic Con's vendor organizers cannot guarantee that my or my concern's specific power needs can or will be accommodated, thus I should prepare to operate at my vendor table space without access to (an) electrical outlet(s).

Fog City Comic Con 2018 will run from 11:00am until 4:00pm on Sunday, May 6, 2018. I understand that I need to be ready by no later than 11:00am and that I have to take my table down and be gone by no later than 4:15pm.
