

A mysterious hooded figure, known only as the Velvet Knife has appeared in the cursed village of Suncroft. No one knows who he is or what he wants but when he starts leaving riddles around the village, it is time for Josie to return to Suncroft for a second time. With Asher, her faithful husky Protector, by her side, Filan, a half elf, and her great grandad, will they be able to solve the clues in time and discover his identity?
