Meet Jonathan Haupt:

Jonathan Haupt is the executive director of the nonprofit Pat Conroy Literary Center, the founding director of the annual Pat Conroy Literary Festival, and the former director of the University of South Carolina Press, where he created the Story River Books fiction imprint with Pat Conroy. Under Haupt's leadership the Conroy Center was named an American Library Association Literary Landmark, South Carolina's first affiliate of the American Writers Museum, and TripAdvisor's top-ranked destination in Beaufort, South Carolina. With novelist and artist Nicole Seitz, he is co-editor of the anthology Our Prince of Scribes: Writers Remember Pat Conroy, published by the University of Georgia Press and featuring the remembrances of 67 writers Pat Conroy befriended and championed.

"His wound may have been geography, but his legacy was generosity.... what could have been a tedious eulogy turns out to be a compelling read that illuminates the man behind the myth, a writer's writer, a fantastic storyteller, a flawed genius, and an exceptionally loyal friend.... How many writers get a 60-author-strong memorial published after their death? For fans of Conroy, the peek into his real life is especially entertaining." —Kirkus Reviews
