

Join Elephant Thoughts On Our Third Group Trip To Mirik, India Summer 07 And Be There For The Planned Opening Of Our First School

This trip will take place next year in late July and early August

It will have two groups of people involved

One portion will be individuals who have volunteered for Elephant Thoughts and/or want to be involved in Professional Development Activities, the “Worker” Group. The second will be people interested in travelling to India and most will have heard of Elephant Thoughts and would like to see and be involved in a smaller fashion with our work in Mirik, the “Interested” Group.

Both Groups will travel in India and spend some time in Mirik together.

This is an initial flyer. Prices and more detailed itinerary will be prepared when interest and numbers are known.

Group “A” The “Worker” group will be spending 5 weeks in India (4 weeks in Mirik) (approx July 19th to Aug 23rd)
