THE LAST FRONTIER

February 2010

Preparations for Alaska

It seems with the winter that we have been experiencing here in Virginia, that the first thing people say is, "God is just getting you ready for Alaska!" We have enjoyed this winter and the beauty of God's handiwork here in southwest Virginia, but are anticipating what our next winter will be like in Alaska. Our plan departure is still the first part of this summer, and we have begun in earnest our preparations for the move. We have applied for our passports to cross the Canadian border, and are cleaning out the clutter that we have accumulated over 11 years. God has provided 82% of our needed support and we trust Him that He will bring in the remainder of the needed support during the next couple of months.

January and February have kept us on the road in New Jersey and Ohio, but for the most part we have been close to home with meetings in our local area, which has been a blessing. During these first two months we have had 7 new churches partnering with us in our ministry. All we can claim is He will provide our ever need. With that being said we must thank our home church, Fellowship Baptist, for their generous gift toward a vehicle. We have been and continue to ask the Lord for His direction in just the right vehicle for our family, please help us pray! Our travel fund is growing and with the estimated cost of $10,000.00 to make this move all we can do is trust the Lord to supply this need, we have no doubt that He will!!! Our home in Virginia will be put on the market within the next few weeks, please pray that it will sell quickly.

Our upcoming schedule is full and we appreciate the opportunities God has given us to present our ministry. Knowing that God is our guide and provider has made deputation an exciting part of this ministry. We thank you for faithfulness in praying for us and we ask God's richest blessings on you!
