The Doom Murders, by Brian O'Hare

Detective Chief Inspector Jim Sheehan is faced with a Da-Vinci-Codesque series of killings. The murderer is profiled as someone with trauma in their past: but in post-Troubles Northern Ireland, the problem could turn out to be finding someone without such a history ...

Brian O'Hare's INSPECTOR SHEEHAN MYSTERIES series gets off to a great start with this clever thriller.

"A disturbingly deep and satisfying Irish novel that pretends to be just an intriguing murder mystery set in Belfast." Eugene Fournier (Novelist and screen writer)
