Understanding of Health/Illness Policies

I (we) understand that the health and well-being of our children attending our childcare program is top priority. I (we) understand that when my (our) child becomes ill while at the Club, the following will take place (as noted in the handbook):

1. I (we) will be contacted if the circumstances warrant. (see handbook)
2. I (we) must and will pick our child up from the program within one hour of notification and I may have to complete a "Potential Illness Report Form".
3. I (we) will exclude our child from the program for as long as is necessary. (see handbook)
4. I (we) will complete the "Return After Exclusion" form as required to verify that all exclusion requirements have been met.
5. I (we) will notify the staff if my child will be absent and will provide the reason why.
6. I (we) understand all of the program's health policies as written in the handbook.
7. I (we) have read and understand the "New Brunswick Child Day Care Facility Exclusion Reference Guide" and the "Managing Illness in Child Day Care Facilities Parent's Role" pages included in our handbook.
8. I (we) agree to call the Club with information regarding the reasons why my child is absent.
