In reliance on the statements and representations above and on the agreement set out below, the Fort McMurray Construction Association may from time to time, and at the sole discretion of its Credit Department, extend credit to the firm named in this Agreement with regard to purchases by such firm, from or through the Fort McMurray Construction Association of goods and services. If credit is extended, the firm named in this agreement agrees with the Fort McMurray Construction Association as follows:

1. The firm will pay, when due, according to the Fort McMurray Construction Associations' terms and condition, all bills, statements, accounts and invoices from the Fort McMurray Construction Association. Any such payment to be made to the Fort McMurray Construction Association at its office or any such other place or places the Fort McMurray Construction Association may direct.
2. That all past-due accounts shall bear the maximum legal rate of interest.
3. That the firm agrees to pay any reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred in any efforts to enforce payment of sums due by the company or to collect the same.
4. That the Fort McMurray Construction Association at its sole discretion, at any time, may cease further extension of credit to the firm.
5. That any firm with returned or stop payment checks will be placed on C.O.D. only terms, indefinitely.

The above information, as well as that given on the entire credit application document, is for the purpose of obtaining credit and is warranted to be true. I/We authorize the Fort McMurray Construction Association to investigate the references listed and perform a general credit check as it pertains to the applicant's credit financial responsibility.

Any misrepresentation in this application will be considered as fraud, since the information herein is the basis for the extension of credit. As an inducement to grant credit, the undersigned warrants that the information submitted is accurate and correct. You are authorized to investigate the credit reference and principles listed.
