

TIME FOR THE GROWING UP TALK...

But don't want more than your child can handle?

And you want it from a Catholic perspective?

The Joliet Diocesan Life Office recommends

Parent/Child Workshops for 9-12 year olds

By Dr. Coleen Kelly Mast,

educational consultant,
author of two chastity series;

Love & Life and Sex Respect,

and radio talk show host
on Ave Maria Radio!

To book a presentation
at your parish or school

Contact:

Respect, Inc.

877-673-7732

www.sexrespect.com

There will be video presentations, discussion time between parent and child, and a limited question and answer session.

Information presented will include:

- the changes that occur during puberty: physical, emotional, mental, & spiritual
- a simple theology of the body
- the virtues your child needs to acquire to grow in maturity during adolescence
- following the guidelines of innocence from the Vatican Document, "The Truth and Meaning of Human Sexuality"
- topics for further discussion at home

"The Church has always affirmed that parents have the duty and right to be the first and principal educators of their children.

Parents are rich in an educative potential which no one else possesses."

from the Vatican Document, The Truth and Meaning of Human Sexuality, n 5 & 7.