

Chapter 1 – LG1

1. What is the first step in getting those within the church motivated to reach those who have fallen away from the faith?
2. How we can help those that have fallen away to re-connect with the church? What methods or tools can we use to aid in our evangelization process?
3. Describe how the church can provide a more open and inviting environment for those that are new or returning to the faith?
4. How can we prepare ourselves as a church community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
5. How can we as a church community appeal to the youth, adults and the demographics of the community?
6. How can San Martin de Porres address the population growth in Sahuarita?

Chapter 2 – GS1

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a church community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. What can we do as Catholic Christians to restore value of human life in our parish and the community?
3. How can the church build a stronger spiritual foundation and a greater knowledge of the faith in our parish?
4. How do we depart from the “self-centered” mindset that exists in today’s society?
5. How can we as a parish prepare ourselves to proclaim the truth and speak openly about the evils of modern thinking?
6. How do we come together as a parish community to combat the lies and filth that exists in the mainstream media and entertainment industry?
7. How can San Martin de Porres address the population growth in Sahuarita?

Chapter 2 – GS2

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a church community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. How can we as a parish support our church leaders and pastoral workers to remain vitalized in the Holy Spirit? – What challenges do our pastoral workers face?
3. How can we reignite the flame in ourselves and share it with our parish community?
4. Describe how the parish can build fervor for Jesus and the sacraments of his Church?
5. With the advances in technology, the element of face to face communication has been diminished, how can we counter this trend and renew our “face to Face” relationship with Christ?
6. How do we give of ourselves and give back to the ministries of our parish? What ministry will you help support?
7. How can San Martin de Porres embrace the population growth in Sahuarita?

Chapter 3- LG2

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a Church Community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. God has chosen you to go forth and make new disciples. How will you as a group come together to reach out to those who fallen away from God and the Church?
3. Proclaiming God’s Love and Salvation can encounter obstacles. What obstacles do you foresee and how will you support each other in these times?
4. Evangelization is a process, it requires face-to-face communication. How will you prepare for this, and what will you discuss with those whom you are evangelizing?
5. Proclaiming the Gospel to different cultures involves proclaiming it to Professional, Scientific and Academic circles. How are you going to educate yourself to address these circles, and what tools will you use?
6. How can San Martin de Porres embrace the population growth in Sahuarita?

Chapter 3- GS-3

1. The Holy Spirit has inspired not just a part of the Bible, but the Bible as a whole? How can we invoke the Holy Spirit in our own lives to better understand the words we read from the Bible?
2. How do you prepare your heart each Sunday so that you are disposed to listen, both to the biblical readings and to the Homily? Do you practice lecto divina (Divine Reading) and ask “Lord what this text says to me?”
3. Whoever wants to preach must be the first to let the word of God move him deeply and become incarnate in his daily life. How will we keep God the center of our lives the other six days of the week?
4. When we make an effort to listen and follow the Lord, temptations usually arise. We often question ourselves or over complicate what God is saying to us through his words. What support will you have in place to stay the course, and how will you come together to Preach the goodness of the God?
5. How will you relate God’s message to ordinary Human experiences?
6. How can San Martin de Porres address the population growth in Sahuarita?

Chapter 3-LG-3

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a Church Community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. What is the first step in getting those within the church motivated to reach those who have fallen away from the faith?
3. Why is the Kerygma the “first” proclamation of the gospel, and why must it be announced “at every level and moment”? What attitudes must we have in order to foster openness to this message?
4. Have you ever accompanied others in their walk with the Lord? What did it require? If you were the one being accompanied, what did you most appreciate about the person mentoring you?
5. How can San Martin de Porres address the population growth in Sahuarita?
6. How do we give of ourselves and give back to the ministries of our parish? What ministry will you help support?

Chapter 4 – GS4

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a church community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. In light of social issues that exist in today's society, what should our response be to these issues? How should we as a parish treat and mentor those within the church that don't necessary agree with biblical, church teaching regarding such issues? (Marriage, birth control, abortion, divorce, etc.)
3. How should the parish proclaim the gospel to the community knowing that the message of the gospel is more than a personal relationship with God, but the primary mission of the Church?
4. Modern culture and civil institutions try to relegate Christian values to something that is to be kept private and not proclaimed because it may not be in agreement with modern thinking, what should our approach as a parish be to these challenges?
5. How can our parish enable its members to have an impact on the community and the public in general?

Chapter 4 – C1

1. What is the condition of our community as it relates to poverty and the needy?
2. We are called on as Christians to help the poor, sick, and needy. How do we as a parish hear the needs of the poor and develop a sense of love and compassion for those that are suffering?
3. The scriptures remind us that whatever we do (or don't do) for the least in this world, we do for Christ. How can we as a parish community do what the Scriptures call us to do as Christians? How do we get parishioners out of their comfort zone?
4. What programs can be implemented at SMDP to offer assistance to the poor and needy?
5. How can our parish provide a path for those that are in poverty to become self-sufficient and to get out of poverty; thus restoring dignity?
6. What is our response to those that are victims of exploitation? How can we help provide hope and healing?
7. How do we develop a sense of urgency within our parish for the sick and poor?
8. What can the parish do to care for the sick and elderly?

Chapter 4 – LG4

1. How can we prepare ourselves as a church community to address the issues in our society when we proclaim the faith?
2. What does responsible citizenship mean for us as practicing Catholics? How do we promote responsible citizenship?
3. List the principles outlined by Pope Francis and how do these principles apply to evangelization? How can these principles be implemented in our parish?
4. How should we embrace the diversity that exists within our parish and use it to proclaim the gospel? Is there unity in our church community? If not, how do we overcome the differences?
5. What should be our approach and dialog with other Christian denominations within our community? How can we use our common beliefs to promote Christ for the betterment of the community?
6. In regards to non-Christian faiths, how can we bridge or overcome the obvious differences that exist without compromising our own beliefs to develop a sense of solidarity in the community?
7. How can we work with other faiths to combat the social ills that plague our society?

Chapter 5 – LG5

1. What is the first step in getting those within the church motivated to reach those who have fallen away from the faith?
2. What does it mean to have a personal encounter with Christ? Does our parish encourage and provide opportunities for such an encounter? If not, what needs to change?
3. Is our Parish providing opportunities to become rooted in the Holy Spirit? On the day of Pentecost, there was fervor to proclaim the gospel; does that fervor exist today in our parish?
4. What is spirit filled evangelizers? How can we be become a parish of spirit filled evangelizers?
5. What does it mean to open our eyes to the needs of our neighbor?
6. What does it mean to lose ourselves to Christ? How will you prepare your heart to accept God's will?