

Rodgers Flower

Rodgersia Aesculifolia

- ❁ Adds substance and drama to the garden with its bold foliage and flamboyant panicles of creamy white flowers in early summer. leaves to 10 inches long. forms a clump that is 3 feet wide and 6 feet tall with leaves that are ten Inches long. It is great for naturalizing in wetter areas of the garden such as along streambeds or boggy areas.
- ❁ Likes moist soil, will tolerate dryer conditions with more shade
- ❁ Reliable and easy to grow

Height: 4-6 Feet

Zone: 5

Partial Sun

Full Shade

Moist, Well-Drained

Rodgers Flower is in used pots, please disregard any codes written on the pots