Associate Member

An Associate member is a person, corporation or firm that does not actively bid or work in the construction field. A typical example of this would be an insurance company or supplier. Associate Memberships are offered the rights of a Full/Corporate Member except for the following:

- Access to FMCA's Plan Room
- Access to COOLNet AB Electronic Planroom

FMCA is associated with the Alberta Construction Association and the Canadian Construction Association. As such your voice is heard nationwide as we seek to collaborate with all levels of government and industry for the betterment of our member firms. Our primary interest is to work on behalf of our membership to spearhead the initiatives that will grow our industry locally, provincially and nationally. We do our best to work with all parties to find common solutions. Working for the betterment of our industry is truly about community collaboration!
