Firstly, thank you to all that came to the AGM on Saturday 22th September. No vote was required for the 2018/19 Executive Committee. This year we have Ray Sangster taking the reins as President this year, with Judith Chatwin and Andrew Lister as Vice Presidents. The rest of the committee is made up of Janine Hickmore, Paul Moir, Ian Morrissey, Jacki Morrissey, Deonne Ryder and Eileen Whitwell.

I would also like to congratulate Bob Buchanan, Betty Carroll and Jan Lawrence on being awarded Life Membership for their service to the Howick RSA.

At the AGM the members present voted on changing our name to The Howick Returned and Services Association Community Club (Inc). This change in name demonstrates and strengthens our relationship with the local Howick community.

This year marks 100 years since Armistice Day, and we are having a Commemorative Dinner & Dance on Saturday 10th November. On the 11th of November, Armistice Day, there will be a service on Stockade Hill at 11am. Returned and Service Men and Women are invited to march in the parade and need to meet at 10.45am on Mellons Bay Road. The service will be followed by a luncheon in the clubrooms

Have you got your tickets to the Elvis Tribute Show yet? It's his last show in New Zealand before he moves overseas. Make sure to book in your table when you buy your tickets. Bitchin' Bingo is also coming up on Saturday 13 October. This is a fantastically funny bingo show and Mistress Viv will have you in fits of laughter! Tickets are on sale now from the bar.

We have a Working Bee organised for Sunday 28th October from 9am – this will be a general tidy of the carpark and gardens.

The Howick Rotary Club is almost ready to start selling books at Bookarama. Grab yourself a few new books from Wednesday 10th October.

November Birthday Vouchers are now available to pick up from the bar or the office. You may have noticed a change to these, you now get $15 to spend at the bar or in the restaurant.

Scott Adams, Secretary Manager
